

Minutes of Grant County Historical Society Meeting

Wednesday, June 15, 2022, Marion Public Library

The June Historical Society meeting was held at the Grant County Circle G Saddle Club on CR 700 E. in Grant County. The meeting convened at their club house at 6:30pm.

The Circle G Saddle Club hosted a meal for us. The society provide a cake for desert as well as a certificate of recognition.

The past president of Circle G shared high points of their 80 years of continuous operation as one of the oldest horse groups in the state. Several times they have taken chuck wagon groups to Indianapolis. They are interested in opportunities to reach out into the community. The two groups shared some ideas. Janice Miller shared that Circle G might want to reach out to the Red Barn Literacy Children's ministry in Upland. Possibly taking a horse to do a demonstration. One of the Club members also shared that they do horse breeding near their facilities.

The next GCHS meeting will be at the Marion Library on July 20, 2022. After a business meeting, There will information on available facilities.
